Maja Stina Is Back!

Hi Maja, welcome back to Elite, we've missed you! What have you been up to since you last graced our pages? Thank you! Glad to be back! :) I've been working a lot; travelling all over the UK and Ireland. It's so much fun to travel so much but my house has been incredibly neglected!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? It was awesome! we had a really laid back day and got some fantastic images :) Would love to come back again, for sure!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Does getting food count? xD If not, then I really enjoyed shooting the more glamour styled images in the red hoodie, as it's not the sort of thing I get to do that often.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I'm passionate about so many things that I wouldn't know where to start! I particularly enjoy politics, history, humanism, philosophy and anything that pertains to the way the world works; be it social or scientific.

So how can a guy impress you? With difficulty! If you know your stuff on any of the above topics and agree with me, you stand a chance. Alternatively, be in a band... but not like the keyboardist in The IT Crowd that Jen dates!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Nice hands. :) I have a thing for hands!

What's your favourite rude word? It depends on my mood, but I've taken to saying 'titflaps' - God knows what they are!

What's the worst idea you have ever had? Trusting other people with my money!

Tell us something about you that people won't know: There isn't much. I'm pretty honest and will answer most questions people ask, but walking on the beach at night is one of my favourite things to do.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? World peace would be nice, but that wouldn't be a miracle by the literal definition, but it's good enough for me!

What's your favourite Christmas memory? Getting our presents in pillow cases at the end of our beds. :) I used to get so excited about it!

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? A necklace from my dad that I always wear, but that may've been a birthday present...

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Thanks for your support for the mag and for me along the way! It means so much! :)

Kimblee is looking for some misteltoe!

WHY NOT HAVE A NIGHT IN THIS CHRISTMAS?

With Alyshia Ashlee

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I am an all-natural, 22 year old model and makeup artist from Canada. I am a true animal lover, and I really enjoy cooking! I got started in the industry as a child, and progressively leaned more toward the glamour side of things after reaching the appropriate age. I enjoy playing a new character with each photo-shoot.

How would you describe your style? I would describe my style as sexy, but casual. I don't 'dress to the nines' all the time but I like to keep some sex appeal even when dressing down. I love jeans and a cute top. Boots are also a favourite.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? I work with this particular photographer often and it is always a pleasure! I am also his makeup artist, so he knows what it's like to work with me in all aspects and we have been a team since I was 14!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? The IMAGES! I think we really knocked it out of the park on this set!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I am also a makeup artist and it is truly one of my biggest passions, I love to cook also!

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why? I would love to be Tiffany Toth, she is living my dream, and I plan to follow suit!

Photographer: Steve Locke

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do? Feature me every day and give exposure to some more models who deserve it ;)

If you could be a superhero, who would you be and why? Catwoman... mostly because I love cats, and her outfit haha. She is somewhat a villain I guess though.

What's your favourite film? I love the movie Man on Fire. Denzel is always the best.

Do you have any crazy phobias? No crazy ones, but I would rather live without spiders.

So how can a guy impress you?
Have confidence and be sincere.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? A massage!

What's your favourite fancy dress outfit? I love a sexy mini with some embellishment on the dress, and some sexy heels!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? You rock. Follow me on Twitter and Instagram @ alyshiaashlee and find my Facebook fanpage : facebook.com/model2doorsdown

Hey welcome back Joseph! So tell us how and why you came up with the concept for the shoot:

Hey Elite, Its good to be back. For some time now I have been wanting to get into set builds and after my first one going so well with Bex Fisher a few months back. I decided I'd do one with a Christmas theme to get everyone in a festive mood. I knew working with a top notch team was going to be key to get the feel of the shoot right, and after talking with Violaceous Latex and brainstorming ideas we had an idea to pursue. It was then a case of getting the rest of the team assembled, which, if I'm honest, was probably the easiest part of the whole job... After working with some very talented and reliable individuals over this past year it can't of taken much more than a day to get all three models, an MUA, hair and wig stylist, video crew, location and accessory designer. We thought that as Christmas tends to be very happy-go-lucky and so full of cheer and joy that we would attempt to put a slightly darker twist to it, whilst still getting folks, erm... excited. ;)

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Whilst there were so many parts of the shoot that I really enjoyed, like working with the guys from Orange Reel Films and the incredibly creative talents of MUA Kelly Odell and wig stylist DBX hair, I would have to say the best part of the shoot was the amazing outfits made by Violaceous Latex. Annabelle has never let me down when it comes to quality of garments and as far as im concerned is one of the best latex designers in the country.

Was their anyone from the team that you were particularly looking forward to working with more? I'd worked with many of the guys from this team before so knew what to expect from them, and boy did everyone deliver! But having the opportunity to work with Jemmy had to be what I was most looking forward to. Jemmy gives so much in front of the camera and her presence as santa was exceptional.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? I think if I could ever perform a Christmas miracle it would have to be erasing cigarettes from history, there's nothing worse than a really nice Christmas diner and someone trying to light up.

What's your favourite Christmas memory? My favourite Christmas memory is one I have every year... The food. Theres nothing better in the world than the incredible atmosphere created with Christmas dinner. The food, the family, the friends, the tree, the warmth, the entertainment and, of course, the tipple... Love it.

What has been your favourite present that you have given to someone, and that you have received from someone? I'd have to combine both these questions into one. The best gift to give and to receive is experience. Whether it's something extravagant like snowboarding on Christmas in the alps (wink nudge hint hehe) or the epic gathering of family and friends often never seen at any other time of the year.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Firstly, thanks for taking the time to read this magazine and continue to support small business'. It seems that now more than ever we need to encourage small business' to thrive as the big companies go down and out with standards dropping.

Secondly, Don't ever let yourself be disheartened by the inevitable set backs we all face. There will be times when you want to quit, believe me I've been there. Nothing worth having ever comes easy! Lastly, I wish you all the best this Christmas. Don't enjoy yourselves TOO much hehe. Please feel free to enquire should you have any set build or photography requirements. Also, all images are available as prints and signed copies can also be bought. Merry Christmas!

Sexy Reindeer #1

Hi Dani, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself and how you got in to modelling? I've always loved dressing up and taking photos! I did my first professional shoot when I was scouted on MySpace at the age of 16 for an alternative webzine. I got a taste for it and started doing photoshoots for fun. I started getting into latex shortly after that, but things really took off when I won Bizarre magazine's ultra vixen of the year at age 18!

What was it like to work with Joseph O'Brien on this shoot? He was really helpful in getting everything organized and knew exactly what he was doing. I'd seen some of his work before so I knew we were in for a treat!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? I always love having my make-up done, it's so relaxing and it looked really amazing. And of course, helping to shine up the other girls..

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I'm really into music, I play guitar and I love going to metal gigs and festivals. I've also been learning to pole dance and I now have a pole in my bedroom which goes perfectly for when a sexy tune comes on!

So how can a guy impress you? I'm a sucker for old fashioned romantic gestures and I love being spoiled.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? Well it can't just be me.. Doesn't every model know it's ok to eat as much sushi as you want after a shoot?

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? My number one turn on is an interesting and adventurous personality! But, being a musician with tattoos and long hair definitely helps.

If you could have one superpower, what would it be? It would be to wake up every morning fully dressed, made up and ready to go! Would I get my own latex superhero outfit for that? I'd be saving lot's of people the time they spend waiting for me!

What's the worst idea you have ever had? Going skinny dipping with my friends on holiday in the hotel pool after it had closed. It really didn't seem like a bad idea until we got caught and had to leave the pool naked in front of all the staff!

Tell us something about you that people won't know: I'm actually a total lab geek. I'm really interested in chemistry and I graduated this year from a BSc(Hons) in Cosmetic Science.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? It would snow all day, but summer would begin the second Christmas was over!

What's your favourite Christmas memory? Getting too drunk and singing embarrassingly cheesy karaoke for all my friends. It probably wouldn't be a memory at all if they didn't film it.

What has been your favourite present that you have gave to someone? Last December I took my twin sister (non-identical) to see Motley Crue and Def Leppard. The best part was, I got to go too!

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? My guitar! It's a B.C. Rich Warlock which I've named Gene (due to a strong resemblance to Gene Simmons from KISS). It was a gift from my best friend and it's by far my most prized possession.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? I hope you all have an amazing Christmas this year, make sure you DO drink too much! And if you want to stay up to date with all my latest antics, don't forget to find me on Facebook under 'Dani Divine'.

Name: Jemmy J
Age: 23
Location: Grimsby/Newcastle

Mrs. Claus

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself and how you got in to modelling? I had really low confidence and self esteem when I was younger then when I found myself in a womens refuge after having a baby. I decided to do something about it, so I did a shoot with a local photographer and found I really enjoyed it, I was signed by two agencies from it and just kept being contacted for shoots!

What was it like to work with Joseph O'Brien on this shoot? It was awesome he is such a fun guy and really creative, the day was so fun and squeaky!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? When I got to be the pimp to the two sexy reindeer bitches.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? Art, I absolutely love being creative. I can lose myself in drawing sometimes.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? Public sex, I love the excitement of knowing you could get caught!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Lesbians.

If you could have one superpower, what would it be? To be a jumper! (like the film, not like a sweater :P)

What's your favourite rude word? Hmm cuntballs! What do you think?

Tell us something about you that people won't know: I'm obsessed with drawing and gaming, I should really get out more but I'm more of a PS3 and takeaway kind of girl.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? Zombie apocalypse!

What's your favourite Christmas memory? Just spending Christmas with my family as a kid, pretty lame but I don't get to do it anymore and I miss that.

What has been your favourite present that you have you gave to someone? Me wrapped in a bow ;) haha.

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? Anal.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? I hope you all have an awesome Christmas and get good and pissed on New Year :D

Photographer: Joseph O'Brien

Name: Dannii B
Age: 21
Location: Midlands!

Sexy Reindeer #2

Hi Dannii, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself: Hey! I'm Dannii, I have been modelling on and off for over a year and it's been pretty rad so far! As well as modelling I am a Midlands ambassador for Monster Energy.

What was it like to work with Joseph O'Brien on this shoot? It was a wicked shoot. I have worked with him before and he is a very talented photographer!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Meeting everyone else that was involved. It's always really fun having a big team on a shoot!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I love running Peaked Apparel with my boyfriend and performing.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? I never pick up my clothes :P

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Guys that are arrogant on the outside but a sweetheart on the inside, like mine :)

What's your favourite rude word? Boobies.

Tell us something about you that people won't know: In my onesie my boyfriend says I look like a giant baby when I wake up...

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? My flat to be warmer and it be easier to get up in the morning :(

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? I have never really had anything overly exciting :( my step dad wrapped some cans of tomatoes up one Christmas to make it look like I had more presents as a joke. I was not happy when I unwrapped them.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Stay rad and have a Merry Christmas <3

Name: DBX
Location: Parts Unknown.

Hair Stylist

Hey! How was it working on the Christmas shoot with Joseph and the girls? Very enjoyable, thank you for asking- needless to say, I have never before co-operated on a shoot quite like this one. With a good number of talented, creative people contributing to these images, the hair styling principally came about as an organic response to the design atmosphere of the photoshoot itself: attempting to augment each distinct visual element; whilst also developing three separate looks that, when unified, still compliment the broader character of the concept.

What was your favourite part of the shoot? It's always fun to work with new people, as you never really know what's going to happen; and that invariably poses the most interesting challenges.

If you had to choose a favourite model from the shoot, who would it be? Now, you can't make me choose... all three of them look amazing.

How long have you been in the industry? Only a year or two.

Where do you get the best inspiration for your work? My most entrenched influences don't come from fashion; although fashion is certainly something I aspire to be a part of. I am very influenced by visual artists working in other media, such as fine art and design, illustration, photography, etc... Most of my original designs come about as a result of setting myself technical challenges, rather than seeking to realise specific creative ideals.

Who would you ideally like to work with? Hussein Chalayan... or RAMMELLZEE (the latter being the more unlikely, by some considerable margin). It's their fearlessness that appeals to me: Chalayan in his progressive intellectualism; Ramm in the expansiveness of his all consuming vision.

Cont...

So what's the future going to hold for you now? I intend to saunter onward: with the same directionless bearing; and see where my intuition takes me.

Seeing as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be?
DINOSAURS.

What's your favourite Christmas memory?
Snowbound, childhood midwinters: in Finland; with my family.

What has been your favourite present that you have given to someone? I'm not religious, so don't really celebrate Christmas... perhaps the gift of cynical, heathenistic douchebaggery?

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Hello, Elite Readers. Here's wishing you all a 2013 of wall-to-wall awesomeness.

Name: Kelly Odell

Location: Leicester

Hey Kelly! How was it working on the Christmas shoot with Joseph and the girls? It was awesome, I really loved how everything came together. From Josephs back drop creation, to the girls styling and posing. When they were stood in front of the back drop, I had a really good feeling that the shoot was a huge success.

What was your favourite part of the shoot? I enjoy applying the makeup, but my favourite part is watching the models pose and bring the styling and set to life.

If you had to choose a favourite model from the shoot, who would it be? All the girls were lovely, they were all friendly and gorgeous. If I really had to pick, it would have to be Jemmy as she's a hard working mum like me and I suppose we had that connection! But I really loved the other girls too!

How long have you been a make up artist? I have been studying makeup for 3 years now and applying makeup to clients for 2 and a half years.

Where do you get your best inspiration from for your work? It depends on the style of work I am creating, I love beauty makeup artists for the natural flawless look, but if it was for something creative I look up to the styles of Alex Box, Pat McGrath and illamasqua as a whole. If it is face or body painting I love the styles of Verushka, and the Wolfe brothers.

So what's the future going to hold for you now? I will complete my second year on a foundation degree in Artistic and Special Effects and will graduate. After that I will continue to self promote and get myself out there to do all sort of creative makeup from the normal special occasion, to the full body painting. I will also be going to Glastonbury as I have a golden ticket.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? I would ensure that all the children in the world were loved and healthy.

What's your favourite Christmas memory? I was really young and came downstairs to a huge sette full of presents just for me. I had so many, I'd never seen so many presents and never got that amount ever again either.

What has been your favourite present that you have you gave to someone? I brought my mate some gig tickets this year, we went to see Newton Faulkner, Ben Howard and Mumford and Sons. Their quite cool gifts. But an obvious one, would have to be my girl to her dad.

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? I got a lovely ring from my dad. It wasn't expensive or worth a lot, but it was priceless because it was a gift from him, and I'll cherish it forever.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Happy Christmas and good luck in the new year, if you worked hard it's time to play harder, but be safe.

Name: Annabelle

Location: Leeds, UK

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about how you got involved in the shoot with Joseph? I have worked with Joe a lot since I started Violaceous Latex and went to him with the idea of a Christmas shoot, the idea of having an alternative Mrs. Santa with 2 reindeers on reins! We discussed the idea for a while then decided to look for the right models to fit the image we wanted to go for.

We see you have worked with him many times before. Why is that you make such an awesome team? I think one of the main reasons we make a great team is because we are very honest with each other from the start. We both set out what are aims are for the shoot and work together along the way. I have been lucky to work with Joe from pretty much day one of Violaceous Latex and always manage to create some wicked images, that are creative, fun and sexy!

So tell us a bit about Violaceous Latex and how you started it: In all honesty I never planned to start my own label when I did, it was going to be what I wanted to do after university just not whilst in my first year! It all happened without a plan so I just rolled with it, not the best way to start a business though!

Where do you get your best inspiration from? It depends really, sometimes it is just a quick idea and other times like the 'I Want Candy' collection I co-designed with Alice La Vie, were spent a lot time on the design ideas, working to pick the our favourite designs. It is always from something I am really interested in at the time, inspiration can come from anything I see. I can be watching a film and get an idea, or see something when I am walking around town. I always make sure I take a photo or write a little note in my phone.

Who would you ideally like to work with? I have been lucky to already have worked with so many awesome models, photographers, MUAs and hair stylists. Next year I want to continue with working with many of them again but hopefully work with lots of new faces too. I would love to work with Sabina Kelly, Megan Massacre and Skin Diamond.

So do you have anything new that you are working on, that you would like to share with the Elite readers? The items from this Christmas shoot are new and I'm excited to show them to you all! But apart from that, yes I am working on something new for the new year. I had been planning on doing 3 mini collections but due to moving and big changes in my life I had to put these on hold. I look forward to showing all the new things that will be out next year.

So what's the future going to hold for you now?

New collections, a whole bunch more of awesome photoshoots planned and I am even going to model some myself. I also hope that 2013 will be the year I can finally work on the fabric side of Violaceous, transferring some of my designs into a more conventional fabric to wear everyday.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? For every latex lover to have some lovely latex under their Christmas tree! But really... just for everyone to be happy and enjoy spending time with friends and family.

What has been your favourite present that you have you gave to someone? It has to be the year I gave my brother a picture of me in a heart shape photo frame! It was hilarious to see his face when it opened it! I always do silly things like that, the look on his face was priceless.

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? I have a few favourite presents I can remember from over the years. When I was 6 or 7 I got a Barbie hair dressing salon thing where you could wash their hair with a tiny shower head. Then when I was 10 I got my first CD player, it was awesome!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? If you want to keep up to date with my work you can follow me on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. Facebook.com/ViolaceousLatex, Twitter.com/violaceouslatex and @annabelleviolaceous on Instagram

CHRISTMAS

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry: An ex of mine got me into modelling as his friend owns an agency! That and the being an exhibitionist made me want to model :D

How would you describe your style? My style varies! I go from being a yummy mummy in jeans, knee high boots and a blazer, to looking like a hobo in leggings, wellies and a fleece for dog walking, to funky chick with high tops and animal print leggings....to finally.... which is my fav ....sexy, glamorous and glam in a red hot dress and Louboutins! It's awesome being so versatile haha.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? I've worked with Simon before. He's great! Really laid back and easy to work with!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? My favourite part of this shoot was the fact I knew people could see through the window what we were doing! I like the thought of them like 'huh whats going on there then!'

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? As well as modelling I am dog lover! I do bits of work with an animal rescue charity. I'd like to do a whole lot more and 2013 and I aim to do just that! I really enjoy the gym and as you can see from the pics it seems to be paying off! Last but not least, the love of my life! My son... he is ace and acts older than me sometimes! I love chilled out days, cinema trips, playing football in the park, go karting... anything that makes him happy! We are both very lucky that his dad is still in the picture. He sees his dad a lot, half the week! So when I'm jetting off on my shoots etc I know he is safe :)

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a red Santa hat with white trim, a red strapless bikini top, red wristbands, and white thigh-high stockings with red heart patterns and red bows at the top. She is leaning over a dark wood dresser, looking back over her shoulder at the camera with a smile. A bottle of Jack Daniel's is on the dresser. A white door is in the background.

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do? Wow if I had management of Elite for a week I'd fill it with as many hotties as I could (more than there are now) as there's nothing better than looking at sexy women. Fill it with as many boobs and butts as it can hold. I'd advertise a lot of charity events in there too!

If you could be a superhero, who would you be and why? Hmm a superhero... I once was Batgirl in a latex dress! That was for a charity collection. I'll stick with Batgirl! Looks red hot and can save the world hehe.

WHAT IS THE NAUGHTIEST THING YOU'VE DONE?

IT WOULD HAVE TO BE A
THREESOME! TWO GIRLS, ONE
GUY! HOT HAHA BUT I WON'T GO INTO DETAIL!

Photographer: Simon Eccles

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? What turns me on most? Two girls together! It's one thing that drives most people insane... me being one of them.

Seen as it's Christmas... If you could perform one Christmas miracle this year, what would it be? Aww if I could preform an Christmas miracle.... It would be to make sure EVERY child in EVERY country had Christmas prezzies, love, good food and the total joy of Christmas the same as I have. It hurts so much to know there are children out there who get nothing! No presents, no food, no love, no Christmas spirit! :(

What has been your favourite present that you have you gave to someone? The best Christmas present that I gave was to my ex. He had me and a friend of mine dressed up in sexy santa suits... all to himself ;) (see I have my wild side and my normal side!)

What has been your favourite present that you have you received from someone? The best present that I have ever recieved is from my son and my mother funnily enough it was this year! It was a potato the shape of a love heart haha the simple things in life hey!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Here's wishing an extra Merry Christmas to all you Elite readers! And a very good New Year. I look forward to interacting with you all in 2013! I hope you all have a fab festive season, big hugs and kisses Leah x x
